Property Description

Viadux, be one of the first to live in this most desired location in Manchester City Centre! The historical features around the development add a touch of charm and elegance, making an exceptional place to call home.

The high quality corner end two bedroom apartment boasts floor to ceiling windows ensuring plenty of natural light into substantial open plan living and dining areas. The kitchen equipped with modern integrated electric appliances. Two spacious double bedrooms come with built in wardrobe and one of which includes an en-suite bathroom.

Benefit from the convenience of a 24/7 concierge service, ensuring a secure and comfortable living environment. The Residents Lounge provides a place for relaxation and socialising, while the underground swimming pool and spa offer the leisure facilities to relax and unwind. Also, the building offers Gym, a cinema room, a karaoke room as well as a terrace for the residents.

Standing proudly above Castlefield Locks and strategically connected to the iconic former railway station, Manchester Central, the apartment brings a unique opportunity to those wishing to live within the heart of the city centre.

The building is anchored by a range of coffee shops, bars and restaurants. The new designated pathways combined with carefully managed public spaces will bridge the gap between Viadux and other major districts of the city centre.
